A SAFETY CULTURE GOES HAND IN HAND WITH AN ENGAGED TEAM

You cannot have one without the other

We focus on employee engagement and participation in our Occupational Health & Safety activities.

Every year we see an improvement in the number of proactive measures implemented to make the workplace safer. Employee involvement is tremendous, and this can be seen in the TRIR improvement over the last 3Y and on the increasing number of near misses reported worldwide.

We are building the foundations for a “I look after your safety as well as mine” culture.
